

Challenging behaviours: Cut into strips:

The senior participant: in a position of authority over others in the group

The participant who talks too much – seems to know it all

The quiet one who hardly talks

The participant who is constantly arguing or challenging

The easily distracted participant who is always on the phone or missing

The participant who is always joking

The negative, unenthusiastic participant